CJC: Freedom & Equality

The Conscience and Justice Council, comprised of the PARL Directors for the regional conferences and representatives from North Pacific Union, Oakwood University, and Pacific Union, hosts its annual convention focusing on Freedom and Equality. Sept. 13-16 in Houston, TX.

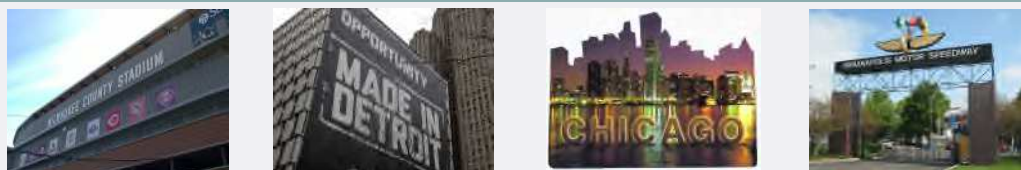

At this convention, you'll hear from Lincoln Steed, Liberty Magazine Editor, Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee, Pastor Jamie Kowlessar, Dallas City Temple, Leslie Malachi Watson, People for the American Way, and Dr. Timothy Golden, Walla Walla University. .

We're covering the landscape of conscience and justice issues. Topics include prophecy in Daniel and Revelation, the Latter Rain, persecution, mass incarceration, voting rights, emasculation of Black and Brown males, Immigration, liberty, bridging the gap between Baby Boomers and Millennials, and so much more. New this year is a Pastor Track for pastors.

This convention targets pastors, elders, PARL leaders and their teams, Men's Ministry, Women's Ministry, Prison Ministry, and anyone interested in conscience and justice issues to foster stronger relationships between the local church and their community,

Early registration ends Aug. 16. For more information or to register, please visit www.cjcouncil.org. We look forward to seeing you and your PARL team in Houston.
